This large-scaled wine may be tremendous right from release, but I suspect it will require patience. Given this estate's history of closing down for considerable time after bottling, despite how precocious the wine shows, look for it to be at its best between 2010-2040. 95+ Parker Points.	£245.00
280	Chateau Cos D' Estournel 2006 2nd Growth Grand Cru Classé, Saint-Estèphe The exceptional 2006 Cos d'Estournel is composed of 78% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot, and 2% Petit Verdot, 55% of the production was utilized. Revealing superb intensity for a 2006 as well as an inky/blue/purple color, and a sweet bouquet of blue and black fruits, licorice, graphite, and charcoal, this full-bodied 2006 possesses high levels of sweet tannin. This wine is characterized by a freshness and precision that give it a 1996-like affinity. Enjoy this beautifully concentrated, exceptionally pure, statuesque Cos d'Estournel over the next 20-25 years. By the way, it was bottled without any fining or filtration. 94 Parker Point.	£275.00
276	Château Lynch-Bages 2000 3rd Growth Grand Cru Classé, Saint-Estèphe An utterly profound Lynch-Bages. The 2000 is forceful yet plush, with a thick, juicy, succulent mid-palate, ripe tannin, and a long, layered finish. I know it will be tempting to pull corks on this wine in its youth, but it really will not hit its stride for 7-10 years and will last for at least 25. £450.00

The 1999 is the greatest Palmer made since 1961, 1966, 1970, 1983, and 1989. It is one of the superstars of the vintage. The wine is a blend of 48% Cabernet Sauvignon, 46% Merlot, and 6% Petit Verdot. It boasts a staggering bouquet of violets and other spring flowers intermixed with licorice, black currants, and subtle wood. Only 50% of the production made it into the grand vin. This is a multidimensional, compelling effort with both power and elegance, it offers sweet tannin along with flavors that caress the palate, and a 45-second finish. This is terrific stuff! Anticipated maturity: 2004-2025. 95 Parker Points.

£675.00

1<sup>er</sup> Cru Classé, Pauillac

94 points wine Journal Reviews: "...a sublime Claret. The nose here has more graphite/pencil box signature, wonderful definition, the cigar box aromas then intensifying with aeration with red-berried fruit, bergamot and redcurrant. The palate is imbued with wonderful poise and elegance, not a powerful or tannic Mouton like the '86, but still very harmonious and exuding freshness from start until finish with hints of tobacco and a hint of Lapsang Souchong lacing aftertaste. Drinking perfectly now." Neil Martin, Wine Journal 2009. RP: Wonderful rich, complex, well-developed bouquet of oriental spices, toasty oak, herbs & ripe fruit. On the palate is also rich, forward, long & sexy. 90 Parker points.

Château Pétrus 1995

£2000.00

Pomerol

Unquestionably one of the vintage's superstar, the Petrus 1995 is taking on a personality similar to the extraordinarily backward, muscular 1975. This is not a Petrus that could be approached in its youth (i.e., the perfect duo of 1989 & 1990). The wine exhibits an opaque ruby/purple colour followed by a knockout nose of toast, jammy black fruits, & roasted coffee. On the palate, it possesses teeth-staining extract levels, massive body, & rich, sweet black fruits buttressed by powerful, noticeable tannin. A formidably endowed wine with layers of extract, this is huge, tannic, monstrous-size Petrus that will last for 50+ years. 95+ Parker Points.

502	Château de Ricaud 2002 (75 cl) Loupiac Brilliant yellow straw in colour, the 2002 vintage has a more discreet aromatic expression, which is quite elegant too, then it reveals on the palate a powerful, yet well balanced structure...	£6.50	£75.00
501	South Brook Cabernet Franc 2006 (37.5 cl) Niagara, Canada Clean & intense & red! Complex nose of strawberry, cranberry & rhubarb. Some spice & pepper also work their way through the intensity. Pleasing acidity forms a backdrop to highlight the fruit & keeps the sweetness in balance. A long, clean, flavourful finish.	£7.30	£50.00
505	Petit Vedrines 2007 (37.5 cl) 2<sup>eme</sup> Cru Classe Chateau Doisy-Vedrines, Barsac A glorious nose of marmalade with just a hint of smokiness leaps from the glass. The palate is equally enticing and has just the right level of viscosity.	£8.00	£55.00
504	Grains de Novembre (50 cl) Rhone, France 100% Grenache Blanc 24 months in 2 year old barrels. Another rarity only possible when botrytis takes hold in this very special vineyard. Deep golden, with aromas of orange and complex flavours of marmalade, apricot, pineapple, honey and caramel. Clean, fresh acidity and not in the least cloying. OUTSTANDING!	£8.50	£75.00
503	Cristallo Vin de Fraise 2003 (37.5 cl) Switzerland This wine is a new creation made entirely from fermented strawberries. Fully ripe berries of the finest quality are carefully selected for a mash fermentation which is then followed by a natural purification process. The residual sweetness balanced by just a touch of acidity gives this wine an unique mellow character. Its exceptional bouquet & rich fruity taste are the result of cellerman Mario Schmid's painstaking care & attention. Tasting a chilled glass of this fantastic strawberry wine is an experience that you simply won't forget.	£9.50	£65.00
506	Craggy Range Fletcher Noble Riesling 2008 (37.5 Cl) New Zealand This was one of the highlight wines at our Craggy Range tasting- its sensational. "Pale greenish straw in colour. Aromas of marmalade, fresh cut orange, citrus zest and hints of baking spices and orange pekoe tea. The palate remains fresh and is loaded with ripe citrus, mango and stonefruit flavours. Concentrated and succulent with generous natural sweetness and balanced acidity. A fine powdery textural line leads to a long juicy finish."	£10.00	£70.00
507	Chateau Lafaurie Peyraguey 2007 (37.5 cl) 1<sup>er</sup> Cru Classe Sauternes, The 2007 Lafaurie-Peyraguey has fulfilled all my expectations since its impressive primeur showing. It is has a light, succinct nose with white peach, pear, apple-blossom and a touch of chalk dust. Good definition, although it needs a little more vitality. The palate is superb: very vibrant on the entry, marmalade, quince, mandarin and a touch of ginger, just a little disjointed towards the finish, good length. (93 Parker Points)	£16.50	£110.00
509	Chateau Rieussec 2007 (37.5 cl) 1<sup>er</sup> Cru Classe Sauternes, This has a very primal nose, the oak exposed at the moment although there is obviously a great deal of fruit concentration underneath. The palate is well balanced, a little oaky on the entry, dried honey, lemon curd, apricot and orange peel towards the linear finish. Tightly coiled Sauternes, quite modern in style, this should develop over 8-10 years in the bottle before really opening up. (93 Parker Points)	£19.50	£135.00

510	Chateau d'Yquem 1998 (37.5 cl) 1<sup>ier</sup> Cru Superieur Classe, Sauternes The 1998 Yquem is a great success. Made in an elegant style, it is not a blockbuster such as 1990, 1989, and 1988. It is well-delineated, with wonderfully sweet aromas of creme brulee, pineapples, apricots, and white flowers. Medium to full-bodied, it is not as sweet as the biggest/richest Yquem vintages, but it is gorgeously pure, precise, and strikingly complex. Already approachable, it should evolve for 30-50 years ... without a doubt. (95 Parker points)	£27.50	£190.00
511	Chateau d'Yquem 1997 (37.5 cl) 1<sup>ier</sup> Cru Superieur Classe, Sauternes A sensational Yquem, 1997 may be this estate's finest effort since 1990 (although I would not discount the 1996 turning out to be nearly as good). The 1997's light gold color is accompanied a gorgeous perfume of caramel, honeysuckle, peach, apricot, and smoky wood. Full-bodied and unctuously-textured, with good underlying acidity as well as loads of sweetness and glycerin, it looks to be a great vintage for this renowned Sauternes estate. (96 Parker points)		£210.00
513	Chateau d'Yquem 1996 (37.5 cl) 1<sup>ier</sup> Cru Superieur Classe, Sauternes Compared with the flamboyant aromatics of the 1997, Yquem's 1996 plays it closer to the vest, although there is a lot going on. Light gold with a tight but promising nose of roasted hazelnuts intermixed with creme brulee, vanilla beans, honey, orange marmalade, and peaches, this medium to full-bodied offering reveals loads of power in its restrained, measured personality. There is admirable acidity, weight, texture, and purity in this impeccably made Yquem. (96 Parker points)		£225.00

PORT

Some of these old Port houses no longer exist; many are absurdly rare. They are opened at the customers risk & will not be refunded in the extremely unlikely event that they are for any reason out of condition. We justify this on the basis that they are extraordinarily good value & it is worth the punt to make tasting history! The provenance for all these wines is excellent.
