Celebrate National Cheese Week

Whether crumbly soft or aged to a pungent splendor, if you adore cheese in any shape or form, don't miss your chance to celebrate National Cheese Week.

Both Boisdale of Bishopsgate and The Modern Pantry are running dedicated cheese menus – Boisdale are celebrating the finest cheeses from north of the border accompanied with a glass of vintage port and Anna Hansen from the Modern Pantry has used a selection of cheeses in her 'magpie-style' of cooking to create some interesting and delicious-sounding dishes!

Take a look at our top Cheese Week eatery picks below:

Boisdale of Bishopsgate celebrates Scottish cheeses for British Cheese Week 2009

From 26th September to 4th October Boisdale of Bishopsgate joins the nationwide campaign to promote British cheese by teaming up with Cheese at Leadenhall to offer customers a selection of SEVEN SCOTTISH CHEESES including Reedsdale, Colston Bassett Stilton, Sparkenhoe Red Leicester, Bosworth leaf Matured Goats cheese, Waterloo, Vintage Lincolnshire Poacher, Oxford Isis and a 5cl glass of WARRE'S 1963 vintage port at an amazing price of £15

The Modern Pantry – a cheese-lover's paradise for British Cheese Week 2009

In celebration of British Cheese Week from 26th September to 4th October, The Modern Pantry's chef patron Anna Hansen pays homage to this glorious ingredient with the cheese-lover's dream – a menu dedicated to cheese. Each course will demonstrate her trademark fusion cooking style whilst incorporating a delicious British cheese as a main ingredient. The menu will be priced at £22 per person with dishes including:

Goats curd and plum brulee, toasted buckwheat shortbread
